11:27:16 From Keith Kaiser, WA0TJT & Deb Kaiser, W0DLK To Everyone:
        Morning from KCMO
11:27:25 From Fred Pryor To Everyone:
        Hi from Cape Cod with 2" of a coating forecast this AM
11:27:33 From Lynn Brophy To Everyone:
        Yes, I'll be signing up…just running late.
11:27:51 From Liam Whooley To Everyone:
        Greetings from a cloudy and cold – 31 degrees – Boston, MA!
11:30:03 From AndrewM Schoka To Everyone:

        My Zoom on Linux doesn't do the download from chat. Just click and nothing happens.
11:41:35 From Richard Sias To Everyone:
        Work around is the new NMUG website makes it easy. Just go to meeting of today and there is link to the "handout". That works fine for me.
11:45:31 From Billy McKee To Everyone:
        You mentioned using labels – eg brother sister – how do you do that?
11:46:18 From Victoria Herring To Everyone:
        Where in Contact info for a person do you note Spouse/Sister/etc.
11:46:27 From Ed Adams To Everyone:
        You can put me down as his great great great great great nephew
11:46:49 From Jo Gammichia To Everyone:
        Do you suggest a separate card for spouses so you can get their birthday in?
11:47:49 From Ed Adams To Everyone:
        The biggest issue I have with contacts is that on all of my Macs including on M1 Mac Mini running latest Sonoma is it is opening it is basically frozen for a few minutes before I can use it.
11:49:34 From Sandy Fitzig To Everyone:
        I have some problems adding a contact to an existing list

11:49:37 From Ward Clark To Everyone:
        Problem with lists: Mail seems to pick a random email address when a person has multiple addresses.
11:49:39 From Hank Humphrey To Everyone:
        why did it create a list under icoud instead of gmail?
11:51:15 From Gill Patten To Everyone:
        I'm assuming the list making has to be carried out on a Mac, is that right? I can't see how it could be done on the iPhone — not on mine anyway.
11:52:59 From K McCulloch To Everyone:
        I am a block leader and have 101 email addresses on my neighborhood list. I would like to share the list with another block leader. How can I do this without sharing everyone's email to the group?
11:53:49 From Mary Condon Rohr To Everyone:
        Is there any way to add a group of addresses intact and separate without integrating them with your original contact list.
11:54:33 From Betty Larsen To Everyone:
        I don't enjoy working with Contacts on my Mac when adding, deleting, making changes, etc. I find I must work in my Contacts online in my iCloud account. Have you ever experienced that?
11:54:54 From George Brooks To Everyone:
        The bad part is that related does not keep those related birthdays for the phone to remind you.
11:55:22 From Ward Clark To Everyone:
        Question: When using a list in Mail, can I control the default email address for people who have multiple addresses.
11:58:01 From Gerrie Shults To Everyone:
        Unfortunately the related field content is just text, it's not like a database where it could actually link to the person.
11:58:02 From Keith Kaiser, WA0TJT & Deb Kaiser, W0DLK To Everyone:
        Cards have a field called 'Nickname' but it does not appear in the smartlist creation. I'd like to have a smartlist for everyone I have a nickname filled in. How to do that?
11:58:42 From Ed Adams To Everyone:
        Actually I did have a question Chita
11:59:43 From Chita Hunter To Everyone:
        Replying to "Actually I did have ..."

        I'll have you go first in the next round of questions.
12:04:32 From Bob Hale To Everyone:
        @Ward Clark No, but the newly created email will offer all of the email options for that person. You must then manually select which one to use by checking the associated box.
        Thanks for your question!
        Best, Bob.
12:06:54 From Cynthia Nicholson To Everyone:
        Can my husbands contacts (separate account and computer) be shared with me in total vs. sharing individual cards?
12:07:51 From Ed Adams To Everyone:

When I have a card that has both a company and a name and the company check box is not checked. When I try to call that company using Siri on my phone it will not recognize the company. That happens whether I have use company or not

12:08:35 From Stephen Ramirez To Everyone:
		The Link Conract feature has useful applications on iPad. Plenty info available on line.

12:11:49 From Ed Adams To Everyone:
		by the way my iPhone is my mic and it is set in zoom. It has worked before but not working right now. It is connected to my iMac via cable and it shows it is being used.

12:12:41 From Don Whinfrey To Everyone:
		Are there any good reasons to have contacts "On my Mac" versus on "ICloud"

12:13:48 From jurijmojsiak To Everyone:
		Mike can you merge duplicate lists as duplicate cards

12:13:55 From carolblacher To Everyone:
		can't find window with General, Accounts, Template, Card.

12:15:40 From Ed Adams To Everyone:
		I got mic to work Chita

12:16:05 From Carolyn Morrissey To Everyone:
		I have cards listed under Icloud and also cards listed under "All on My Mac". How do I combine these to only have one set under Icloud.

12:16:09 From Gill Patten To Everyone:
		Thanks for asking my question for me, Chita — that lets me out, won't be able to make lists on my phone. Still haven't bought a new one, really must get round to it !

12:20:10 From George Brooks To Everyone:
		Maybe use Busy Contacts for Nick Names

12:22:54 From Pat Ferguson To Everyone:
		How do I access the replays to these Wednesday meetings please?

12:23:28 From Ferrers Young 🇬🇧 To Everyone:
		Nickname is available in the Shortcuts app… So you could create your own filter.

12:23:57 From George Brooks To Everyone:
		Replying to "Nickname is availabl..."

		Its also in Busy Contacts list view

12:24:00 From Mike Kwasniak To Everyone:
		@Pat — sign in to www.naplesmug.com and click on the arrow next to MEETINGS and choose PAST MEETINGS

12:24:27 From Karen McCulloch To Everyone:
		How do you print a contact list (ie neighborhood group) that contains the email, address, phone numbers? I used to be able to do it to prepare for block party check in. The last two years when I try, the computer locks up on every attempt.

        I've done some processing with exported lists — we could talk offline. A Numbers spreadsheet can be helpful in marking contacts from one person to then create a smartlist
12:26:52 From Fred Hathorn To Everyone:
        I use my contacts app to make phone calls on Mac via iPhone.
Sometimes I have to click the number multiple times before iPhone will actually make call. Suggestions?
12:27:47 From Ed Adams To Everyone:
        Is there a way to rebuild the database
12:28:18 From Cynthia Nicholson To Everyone:

        Thanks, let's chat offline 🙂
12:32:57 From Hank Humphrey To Everyone:
        I have iOS 17 on an SE iPhone and I don't have "Lists" in top left of window he's showing
12:33:56 From Gill Patten To Everyone:
        Yes thank you, it does help me out.
12:34:03 From Chita Hunter To Everyone:

12:42:24 From Chris Curle To Everyone:
        Yes via Time Machine — retrieve database
12:42:53 From Liam Whooley To Everyone:
        Rebuild Contacts DB? Can Time Machine Backup solve that problem?
12:43:35 From Chris Curle To Everyone:
        Yes, Time Machine can rebuild, retrieve your contacts database….have done it myself.
12:45:16 From Roger Johnson To Everyone:
        My wife ands I share the same iCloud account. With the latest
IOS update when she calls others my photo shows up instead of hers
12:45:27 From Liam Whooley To Everyone:
